February 20, 2015 (Japan), August 12, 2017 (US) Nagakawa Momoko, Watabe Yuuko — Episode 18 Episode 20 — Permeation (透漚, Tōka) is the seventh episode of the anime Tokyo Ghoul √A. Characters[] Synopsis[] Hinami Fueguchi continues to worry about Ken Kaneki and how his activities affect others, especially, Touka Kirishima. After watching her vigorously study to get into Kami University, she asks Nishiki Nishio about love. It is hard for him to explain, but says it is when one wants to spend time with someone else and do things for them. Afterwards to quell Hinami’s concerns, Shuu Tsukiyama reassures her that Kaneki is alive and takes her to a cafe they once visited. While Tsukiyama is in the bathroom, Sen Takatsuki arrives and Hinami divulges her problems to her. Takatsuki gives her painful, but honest, advice about how she is unable to help Kaneki as she is now. Takatsuki leaves, but not before giving Hinami her business card to call her if she needs help. After leaving the cafe, Takatsuki goes to the CCG and asks to have an interview with someone from the staff. Although interviews are closed to the public, an exception was made because of her celebrity status, so Yukinori Shinohara and Juuzou Suzuya discuss with her. Takatsuki plans to write a novel about ghouls in the future and wants some questions answered. Namely, if artificial ghouls can be made by putting a ghoul’s body parts into a human. Shinohara doubts the possibility and does not understand why someone would contribute to making more dangerous creatures. Their interview ends, but before Takatsuki leaves, she tells Shinohara a rumor about a cafe in the 20th Ward. Kaneki continues to be troubled by his degrading mentality and is plagued by nightmares. After a night of unrest, he goes back to Anteiku to speak with Yoshimura. Yoshimura, who has been concerned about Kaneki and trying to gather information on him, agrees to speak privately. Hinami arrives and is told by Roma Hoito that Kaneki is there. She goes to the library to inform Touka who catches up with Kaneki on a bridge after he had left. Kaneki explains his intentions in joining Aogiri Tree as wanting to protect her and Anteiku. Touka does not believe him however and claims that he is doing it out of selfishness. After he continues to lie to her, Touka attempts to fight him. Kaneki easily dodges her attacks until Touka demands he not return to Anteiku, throwing him off guard. She assaults him, wondering why he had to change before leaving him beaten. Kaneki wonders why as well. Juuzou and Shinohara visit Anteiku and have a meal while they ask Yoshimura some questions. Shinohara is investigating the whereabouts of Kaneki and came to Anteiku because it was his previous place of employment. Yoshimura claims they had lost contact with Kaneki since he disappeared two months ago and the only information he could offer was that Kaneki at the time had just undergone an organ transplant, but was constantly sick. Feeling familiar to him, Shinohara asks if he and Yoshimura had met before, but Yoshimura denies it. Their meals and investigation finished, Juuzou and Shinohara complement the service before leaving. Shinohara plans to return. Trivia[] [] If you’ve never heard of Tokyo Ghoul then you’ve probably been living under a rock. A rock that has isolated you from the glorious sunshine consisting of 3 seasons worth of soul nourishment. Tokyo Ghoul revolves around Ghouls who are living repressed lives in Tokyo. Ghouls are really no different from human beings apart from the fact that they cannot eat human food and that they have Kakunaes which are deadly AF. Despite not being able to eat anything apart from human flesh, they do settle for a nice cup of coffee every now and then. You can see in Season 1 our homeboy Kaneki Ken works at Anteiku which is the best coffee shop around the block. Kaneki Ken was just your typical shy high school boy who happens to land a date with Rize, the hottest bitch on the block. Their little coffee date was good until their walk home. Rize revealed that she was a ghoul and was ready to devour Keneki. Luckily for our boy, a bunch of steel beams fell on her saving our boy in the process. He woke up in the hospital where the doctor had transplanted organs and shit from Rize in order to save his life. Malpractice to the highest level but in the anime world nobody gives a F. Now Kaneki is pretty much put through hell. Constantly fighting for his life against CCG, Aogiri Tree and a bunch of other Ghouls would are desperate to eat him *cough cough Tsukiyama. Although not all is bad, he meets a girl called Touka and a bunch of friendly ghouls at Anteiku who helps him adjust to his new life. I’ll take this time to explain what the hell it is that sprouts out of the ghoul’s body. Ghouls have this sac like thing in their body called a Kakuhou that stores specific Rc Cells. These cells are released at will to form Kagune which we can see as those freaky weapons that they use to kill each other with. The shape size and form depends entirely upon the constitution of the RC cells and the users’ creativity. Our boy Kaneki just grows tails like the nine tail fox Imao. Fast forward to Season 4 Which is Tokyo Ghoul Re:2. A bunch of shit has happened. The coffee shop owner dies, Kaneki loses his memory then gains it back, Arima is dead and Eto is surprisingly pretty hot. Don’t get me started on all the additional characters that nobody can really remember when they appeared or what they did a couple of seasons ago. The fight between master and student was pretty emotional. Kaneki was able to release his Kakunja after being pushed to the limits by Arima. After having 2 of his weapons broken, Kishou Arima decides it was pointless to continue and commits Seppuku on his own throat and boom. He ded. His god damn pride was so high that it was actually commendable. But we learn that he was already dying anyway due to a very huge secret! The season where Arima dies and Kaneki and Touka finally have sex, what a time to be alive lol. Touka was being straightforward as F asking if Kaneki was a virgin and telling him that if it really came down to it she would let him do it with her. I mean if that wasn’t dropping enough hints for ya then you’re probably too innocent for this world lol. Fast forward maybe 5 minutes they finally start going at it. The mood was set folks, the two of them in a dark room staring into each other’s eyes with some baby making music in the background. Touka takes her shirt off revealing a massive pair of DD Oppais. HOLY SHIT, they were the most perfect pair of melons I’ve ever seen in my life. I’m so glad they were given time to grow for 4 seasons because if she whipped them out in season 1, I’m sure as hell a lot of viewers would have been disappointed lol. This sex scene was actually pretty softcore but very enjoyable to watch. A lot of flashbacks of their times together and no butt clapping sounds. Just pure romantic love making like its suppose to be between two lovers. I thoroughly appreciated the freeze frames highlighting their 2-minute session to be blissful and heavenly. Oh, and Touka got pregnant after this. Them Ghoul sperm but be super strong swimmers lol. As the new generation do it, they decide to have sex before marriage. Nothing wrong with testing out the waters before getting yourself into a lifetime commitment. Kaneki and Touka decide to hold their wedding underground. The wedding planner was probably someone we all know cough cough and he did a pretty decent job too. The two looked very good together I must say and I hope they live happily ever after with their soon to be born daughter :p I feel like at this point I have no idea what the hell is going on anymore. I’ve been watching for the fights and I’m not even mad. However, I was surprised and glad to see Amon again! Really made my week knowing that he’s not dead! Tokyo Ghoul has been my all time favourite anime with its high pitch opening and its beacon of light on racial discrimination that parallels our own world. Touka Waifu is packing
